

5 ROCKEFELLERS JOIN ZECKENDORF IN TEXAS PROJECT

DALLAS, July 11 (P) — Five Rockefeller brothers have joined in development of the 5000-acre Wynne-Zeckendorf industrial district in the Ft. Worth-Dallas area, William Zeckendorf announced today.

The New York real-estate man said it was the first time the Rockefellers — John III, Nelson, Laurance, David and Winthrop — have extended their real-estate holdings in a large way off Manhattan Island. Mr. Zeckendorf is one of the principals in the huge multi-million-dollar development.

"This Rockefeller move confirms our confidence in the future of the Dallas-Ft. Worth area," Mr. Zeckendorf said at a meeting in which the 2400-acre Waggoner Arlington Downs 3-D Ranch property changed hands. The tract is the largest one in the development district at Grand Prairie and Arlington.

Mr. Zeckendorf, Angus Wynne Jr. of Dallas and other participants in the development met at the Waggoner Ranch headquarters house, La Mariposa, to give two checks, $4,979,793.24 and $196,656.89, for the 3-D property. Previously, Waggoner received $500,000 as down payment for the property.

The extent of the Rockefeller holdings was not disclosed.
